

Minor in Critical Sexuality Studies

Revised 10.18.13

Gender and Women's Studies is an interdisciplinary field of inquiry that investigates how gender and sexuality operate as organizing axes of social, cultural, economic and political institutions, as well as in the everyday lives and cultural products of people who must live within them. Emphasizing the importance of historical and cross-cultural perspectives, the Gender and Women's Studies Department at UMBC critically examines the intersections of gender and sexuality with other differences, including, class, race, ethnicity, nationality, age, and ability to make visible structures of power that otherwise remain hidden.

The Gender and Women's Studies Department offers a major, undergraduate certificate, and two minors, Gender and Women's Studies and Critical Sexuality Studies.

To complete the minor in Critical Sexuality Studies, students must complete 18 credits of gender and women's studies coursework, divided as follows:
